

Please do not allow this to happen. It is bad enough that we are forced to listen to someone talk on the cellphone in restaurants and other public places, but we are hostage to that person on a plane. We cannot get up and move. I believe that it could also lead to violence.